

EDUC 3000
Diversity of Learners and Settings in Education
Course Evaluation Semester _____

We are interested in your response to this course. Each question below is designed to address an instructional objective of the course.

Instructional Objective 1

Students will learn about the historical, philosophical, legal, ethical and social issues associated with the extensive range of differences among learners.

Question 1-How has this course influenced your understanding of contemporary issues in education.

Instructional Objective 2

Students will build awareness, acquire knowledge, and develop skills in communicating and interacting with students, parents, and colleagues of differing backgrounds and perspectives. Such backgrounds and perspectives include attention to the following variables: ethnicity, culture, language, socioeconomic status, lifestyle, religion, age and exceptionality.

Question 2 -What have you learned from this course that will influence the quality of your interactions with people from diverse backgrounds and perspectives?

SEE REVERSE SIDE

Instructional Objective 3

Students will examine their motivation for seeking a career in education and the ways in which their backgrounds and experiences affect their worldview and their view of education.

Question 3 -How has this course influenced you on the personal and levels.