

COURSE POLICIES

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Written assignments that include material that is similar to that from course reading materials or other sources should include a citation including source, author, and page number. Quotation marks should be used if the material is copied directly from the readings and text citations should be used. For example, (Kozol, 1988, p.22). If the material is paraphrased, (Kozol, 1988) should appear immediately following the paraphrased material. Failing to do so constitutes violation of the Auburn University Academic Honesty Code. In addition, written assignments that are similar or identical to those of other students in the class is also a violation of the Code. The consequence for a violation of the Auburn University Academic Honesty Code is "zero points" for the assignment. Rewriting the assignment will not be an option. Finally, you may not submit the work of someone else as your own or work that you have submitted for another class or another PART of this class. See Tiger Cub for rules on academic honesty.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

If you are a student with a disability, you should consult with the Program of Students with Disabilities located in 1232 Haley Center at 844-2096 to identify which accommodations might be needed for this course. Please contact the course instructor as soon as possible to discuss your needs.

ASSIGNMENT GUIDELINES:

All assignments must be double-spaced and typewritten or word-processed. You should keep a copy or file of your paper and all graded assignments returned to you until the end of the semester. Late papers will result in an assignment grade that is lowered 10% per day. For example, a paper that is turned in one day late and results in a grade of "100" will be lowered to a "90". Similarly, a paper that is turned in two days late and results in a grade of "100" will be lowered to a "80". Additionally, points will also be deducted for misspelled words or grammatical errors
