

Interested in doing
research in India?

Interested in a Challenge?

Interested in a Life-
Changing Experience?

YES.

YES.

YES.

If you are interested in any of the above, please consider the U.S.-India International Research Program hosted by LITEE, Auburn University, AL (<http://litee.auburn.edu>).

Eligibility: Enrollment in a graduate program; Engineering Undergraduate degree; U.S. Citizen or Permanent resident. Women and minorities are especially encouraged to apply.

Program Dates: Three-month duration during 2007-2008.

Project: Work at research laboratories at the Indian Institute of Technology Madras and at leading multi-national companies such as GE and document your research experience as a case study.

Cost: FREE!!! Air travel, boarding, and lodging are reimbursed.

Requirement: Enrollment in a independent study course for credit with the program directors

Getting Started:

For more information contact one of the program directors: Dr. P.K. Raju and Dr. Chetan S. Sankar at litee@eng.auburn.edu.

DEADLINE TO APPLY IS NOVEMBER 30, 2007.

NSF: Project # OISE-0623351

