

Auburn University International Student and Scholar Orientation Handbook

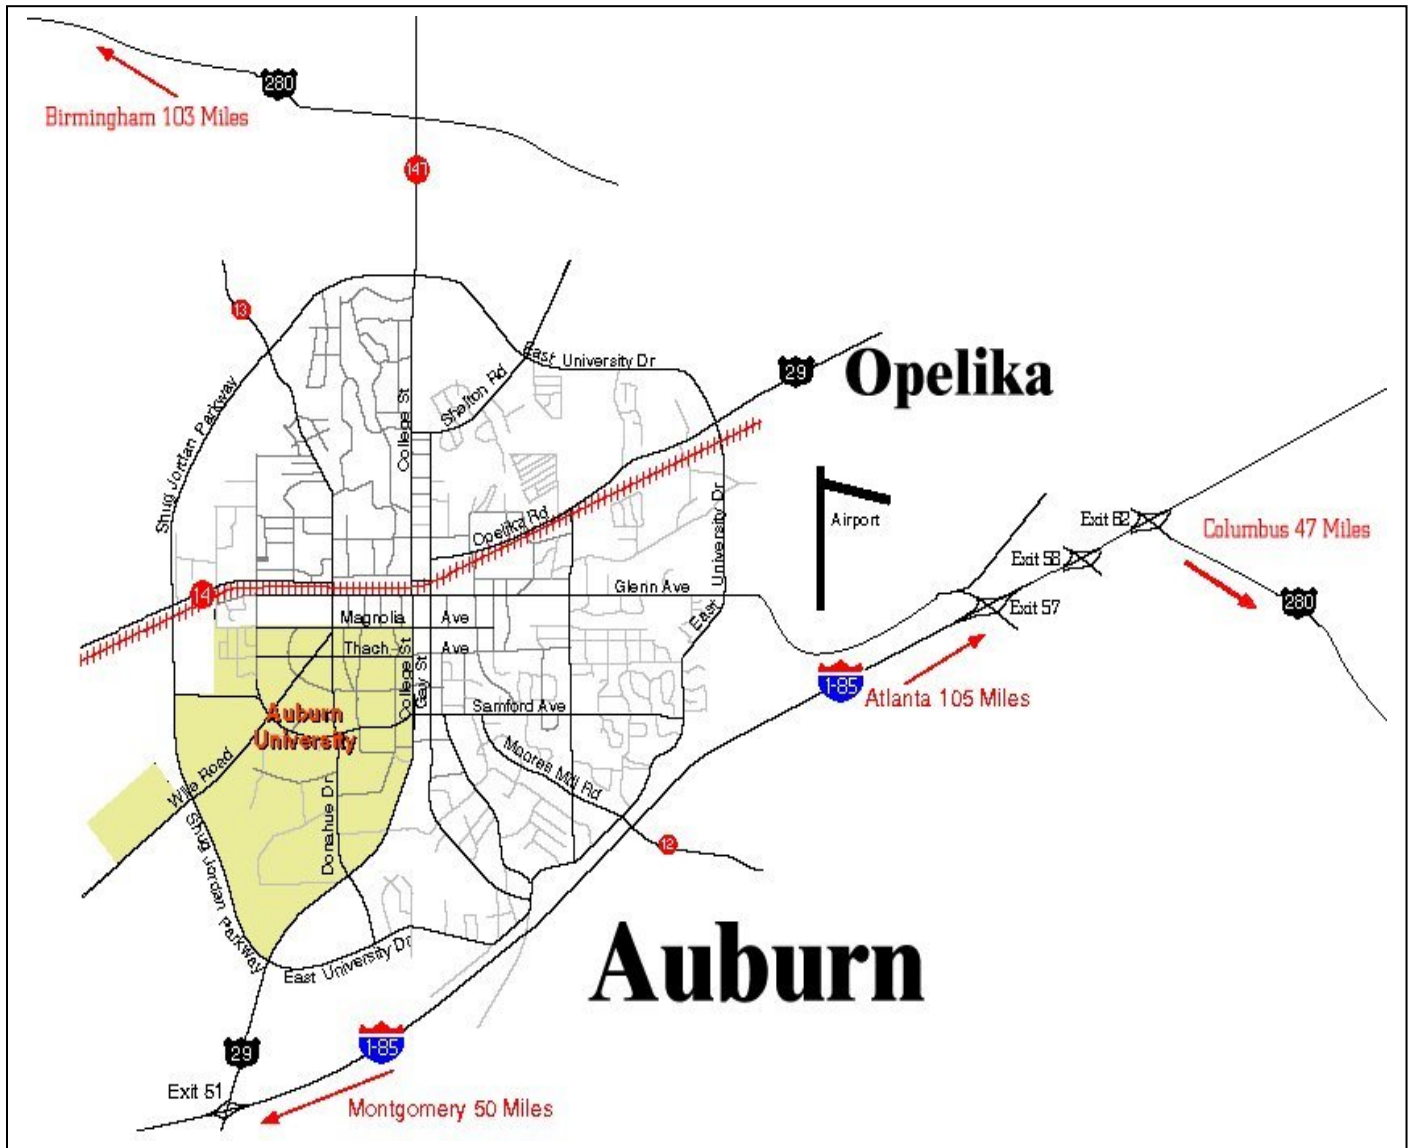

---

Office of International Education and International Student Life

2008-2009

Auburn/Opelika Map

Source: <http://www.auburn.edu/its/ducapps/aumap/auburnmap3.jpg>

This handbook is being provided as a resource for general information and should not be interpreted to be a legal guide or an original source of information on University policy or US immigration rules and regulations. ALL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES HEREIN SHOULD SERVE AS A GENERAL GUIDE HOWEVER DUE TO THE CHANGING NATURE OF CAMPUS AS WELL AS US IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS, BE AWARE THAT THEY ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE. NEVER ASSUME. Always check with OIE (immigration policy) and your academic units (university policy) for information specific to your situation.

July 21, 2008 – 7/31/2005

Table of Contents

---

1: Introduction	6 pages
1.1: Auburn University	1-2
1.2: Important Contact Numbers	1-3
2: Maintaining Your Immigration Status	34 pages
2.1: Immigration Introduction	2-4
2.2: Immigration Documentation	2-11
2.3: Transfer Students	2-19
2.4: Full course of stud/Prescribed Course of Study/Prescribed Program or activity	2-20
2.5: Employment F and J	2-22
2.6: Absence Outside the United States for F-1 and J-1 Visa Holders	2-25
2.7: Other Issues Related to Your Immigration Status	2-26
2.8: Executive, Legislative & Regulatory Update	2-30
2.9: Auburn University Office of International Education Non Immigrant Responsibility Pledge	2-34
3: Academics	12 pages
3.1: Academics Introduction	3-2
3.2: Making the Transition to College	3-2
3.3: Three Ways to Guarantee Success	3-3
3.4: Auburn University System	3-3
3.5: Time Management	3-10
3.6: Some Helpful Tips	3-11
3.7: Top 10 List of Common Student Mistakes	3-11
4: Customs and Culture	14 pages
4.1: Getting Used to a New Culture	4-2
4.2: Characteristics of Americans	4-3
4.3: Visiting Americans	4-10
4.4: Holidays and Celebrations in the United States	4-12
5: Living in Auburn	31 pages
5.1: Student Life	5-3
5.2: Daily Life	5-4
5.3: US laws and immigration – in brief	5-30
6: Health Services	16 pages
6.1: Auburn University Medical Center	6-2
6.2: University Health Requirements	6-3
6.3: University Health Insurance Requirements	6-3
6.4: Health Emergencies	6-11
6.5: Choosing a Private Physician	6-12
6.6: Local Hospitals, Urgent Care Centers, and Clinics	6-13
6.7: Awareness About AIDS (HIV)	6-15
6.8: Review of Public Charge and Health Care	6-15
7: End of the Book	3 pages
7.1: Closing Remarks	7-2
7.2: Appendix on the Web	7-2
7.3: Handbook Acknowledgement page to be turned in	7-3