Auburn University's Health Administration
Alumni Organization
presents its
Fall Education Conference
October 26, 2007

Start your Auburn-Ole Miss football weekend early by joining us for this exciting professional development opportunity. The half-day focused educational offering was designed to appeal to a broad audience in the health care arena. It is a great way to re-connect with HA alums, faculty and students, and those working in the health care field. It is open to all AU HA students, AU HA alums, and others working in the health care field.

Friday, October 26

11:30 a.m. Registration/12 Noon - 3:00 p.m. Lunch & Presentations

Emergency Preparedness for Health Care Facilities:
Lessons Learned from Katrina and Best Practices
Going Forward

James B. Aiken, M.D., M.H.A.
Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center
Department of Emergency Medicine & Director, Homeland Defense

Susan G. D'Antoni
Former Executive Director
Orleans Parish Medical Society
New Orleans

When the wind starts to blow, it's too late for comprehensive emergency planning. Emergency preparedness must be a 24/7 commitment by the administration of every health care facility. Come hear first-hand experiences as our speakers provide lessons learned and strategies for more effective personal, professional and organizational planning going forward.

Friday, October 26

3:05 - 4:00 p.m. AU HA Alumni Organization Annual Meeting

Please join us for the annual meeting of YOUR association. Elections for Vice President and two members of the Board of Directors will be held. Plus, we want your input for future programming and outreach efforts.

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS (Deadline: September 1, 2007)

If you are interested in serving as a leader of AU HAAO, please contact Ansley Langley, AUHAAO Secretary/Treasurer, 205.967.7368 or by email at ansleyr@yahoo.com.
