

★ CALL FOR PAPERS ★

WOMEN'S STUDIES PROGRAM GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM SPONSORED IN PART BY THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

WHEN: Saturday, December 5, 2009

WHERE: Tichenor #215

WHO: All graduate and upper-division undergraduate (with letter of support from faculty member) AU students

WHAT: Papers from any field on any topic related to women/gender/sexuality that are:

- 10-20 pages in length (double-spaced, 12 pt. font, 1-inch margins)
- Based in original research (bibliography and footnotes/endnotes required, MLA or Chicago-style citations)
- Not yet published
*co-authored submissions acceptable

WHY: Great opportunity to present your research to an academic audience and receive feedback on your ideas!

★NOTE: Presenters will have 20 minutes to present their papers on the day of the conference! (1 pg=2 min.)
*IT will be provided

Questions? Contact Dr. Tiffany Thomas #844-6195 or Dr. Ruth Crocker#844-1974

$250 Prize for Best Paper!

Suggested Paper Topics Include

(but are not limited to)

feminist literary theory
women in literature
intersectionality
masculinity and culture
transsexuality, intersexuality, and law
gender politics of sports writing the self Obama era, race, and masculinity
music and gender
regulating sexuality
gender performance
feminist organizing and activism
anti-feminism
undoing gender disability, gender, and feminism
labor, women, and child trafficking
gender in the AU community
women and Alabama's ecosystems

Please Submit:

- 3 paper copies to Dr. Traci O'Brien, Haley #6030 or Denise Guidry, Haley #9030
- 1 copy to open Blackboard page "Women's Studies-Graduate Symposium" available via AU Blackboard system

DEADLINE: November 16, 2009