

AUBURN

UNIVERSITY

Strategic Budgeting Initiative

Graduate Tuition, Aid, and Waivers

May 17, 2016

Gross Graduate Tuition

University's Budgeted Tuition

Resident Tuition

Non-Resident Tuition

Credit Hours Taken

Credit Hours Taken

Credit Hours Taken by Students Majoring in College
Total Credit Hours

Graduate Student Aid & Waivers

Institutional Aid & Waivers

are awarded centrally and are allocated to each College in proportion to the amount of tuition received

Local Aid & Waivers

are awarded directly from the College and most commonly apply to Graduate Fellowships awarded to graduate students

Other Graduate Revenue

Differential Tuition & Course Fees	Distance Education Revenue	Program Fees (Study Abroad, Technology, etc)
Direct Revenue to the College or School	Allocated as graduate tuition Exceptions for existing online undergraduate completer or certificate programs with a market-based fee structure will continue as direct revenues	Direct Revenue to the College, School, Department, or Program

Contact

Bryan Elmore
Director, Budget Services
(334) 844-5852

Amanda Malone
Special Assistant to the Provost,
Budget Management
(334) 844-0280

strtbud@auburn.edu

www.auburn.edu/academic/provost