

CHAPTER 7

BOOKS, PAY, AND UNIFORMS

701. BOOKS

a. Scholarship MIDN receive $375.00 per semester to purchase books. NROTC students are furnished NAVS books only. The supply room is open Monday through Friday during normal working hours. At the end of the semester all NAVS textbooks must be returned to the supply room. When returning books, Naval Science students must ensure that their records in the supply room are updated accordingly. Exceptions to the hours of operation for the supply room will be posted on the BN bulletin board.

b. Navy Officer Candidates must turn in receipts for textbook purchases to the supply room within three weeks of the start of the semester. Receipts must be annotated with the student's name and social security number and the semester for which the books were purchased. Turn in the original and one copy to the supply room. Retain one copy for personal records.

b. Student Supplies. Consumable supplies are furnished by the student in all cases. Pencils, paper, pens, ink, and some laboratory supplies are considered consumable.

c. Reference Books. Reference texts, both NAVS and non-NAVS, may be issued only after required issues have been made. Such reference material must be returned when it has served its purpose and in any case no later than the end of the semester during which it was issued.

and tuition stoppage until the problem is cleared with the unit Storekeeper.

704. UNIFORM ISSUE

a. Uniforms are issued to new MIDN as soon as they report to Auburn. Uniforms are altered and tailored at government expense by a local, contracted tailor shop. After initial tailoring, the cost of any additional required tailoring is borne by the individual. OCs are issued appropriate uniforms prior to their arrival and are provided only those unique uniform items required by this instruction but not previously provided to them.

b. In cases where uniforms are worn beyond repair or the student has outgrown the clothing, the Storekeeper may approve exchange. The government must be reimbursed for lost clothing prior to reissue. Payment will be made in the form of a check or money order made out to "United States Treasury." The price of lost clothing will be provided by the Storekeeper.

c. Clothing is issued by the Storekeeper during normal working hours.

d. Issued Items. NROTC students are held strictly accountable for issued items are not to wear any part of the issued uniform as civilian clothing, unless authorized by uniform regulations. Organizational issue items will be issued according to class and cruise requirements. All items of issue remain the property of the individual after graduation with the exception of organizational items, which must be returned to the unit Storekeeper prior to graduation. Disenrolled students must return all issued clothing specified by the Storekeeper.

e. Purchased Items. Items listed in MIDN Summer Cruise Manual but not available at the unit are required for cruises and must be purchased by each individual. MIDN will receive a copy of this manual prior to going on cruise.

f. PT Uniform. All NROTC students must purchase the yellow (Navy) or green (USMC) Auburn PT shirt. This is a mandatory item and must be worn at all unit PT functions.
