Summer 2009 Direct Parent PLUS Loan Application

The Direct Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) is designed to assist the parents of dependent students in meeting educational expenses. There are no income restrictions that affect eligibility for this loan. However, the parent borrower must pass a credit check. The loan amount limit is the cost of education minus financial assistance awarded the student. A completed 2008-2009 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must be on file before a Parent PLUS loan can be awarded.

Eligibility: Students must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States and be enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a degree-seeking program at Auburn University. Students must be enrolled at least half-time (six hours) to be eligible for a Federal Parent PLUS loan. Student must also be making Satisfactory Academic Progress, as defined below.

Satisfactory Academic Progress: In order to receive financial aid, including the Direct Parent Loan, students must be making Satisfactory Academic Progress – SAP. Students must achieve and maintain a 2.0 cumulative GPA and have passed 67% of attempted hours and cannot receive aid after they have attempted 192 semester hours of academic work. Any student placed on academic suspension or academic expulsion will not be eligible to receive federal financial aid. Please refer to our website under the Special Information heading for additional SAP information.

Interest Rates and Fees: Federal Direct PLUS Loans have a fixed interest rate of 7.9%. Interest begins to accrue on the date of disbursement. A 4% origination fee is charged at disbursement. There is also an upfront 1.5% rebate fee that is credited back to the disbursement and retained by the borrower if the first 12 monthly payments are made on time.
