

Auburn University General Terms and Conditions

1.0 - General Terms and Conditions

1.1 - Auburn University authorizes the Vendor to solicit the University for business transactions on the express condition that the Vendor agrees to accept and be bound by the terms and conditions set forth herein. Where Vendor has provided a bid, quote, proposal, or similar offering instrument to Auburn University, these terms and conditions are hereby incorporated into said offering and apply in like force to any subsequent contract order resulting from this bid quote/bid. Some conditions listed herein may not apply due to the nature of the product or service, or the manner in which it is procured, as determined solely by the University. Any provisions contained in any document issued by Vendor which are contrary to these terms and conditions are expressly rejected. Vendor's commencement of the provision of goods or services shall constitute Vendor's acceptance of these terms. No waiver, consent, modification, amendment or change of the terms contained herein shall be binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Auburn University's Procurement and Payment Services. University's failure to object to terms contained in any subsequent communication from Vendor will not be a waiver or modification of the terms set forth herein.

1.2 - Whenever and wherever items of materials or equipment have been identified by describing a proprietary product, the identification is intended to be descriptive, but not restrictive, and is used to indicate the quality and characteristics of products that will be satisfactory to the University. Bids offering equal or alternate materials and equipment will be considered for award provided such items are clearly identified in the bids, and are determined by Auburn University to be of equal value in all material respects to the proprietary items specified. Unless the firm submitting the bid has clearly indicated in its bid that it is offering an "equal," or "alternate" items the bid shall be considered as offering the items as specified in the invitation for bids/ quotations. If the firm submitting the bid plans to furnish an equal or alternate items, the brand name and identifying numbers and/or letters are to be inserted in the spaces provided or shall be otherwise clearly identified in the bid. The evaluation of the bids and the determination as to quality of the product offered shall be the responsibility of Auburn University. The bid award shall be based on the information furnished by the bidder or identified in the bid, as well as information reasonably available to the Procurement Services.

1.3 - The University will consider acceptable substitutes that meet, or exceed the quality of materials and workmanship of the items specified in the bid/quotation. Substitutions shall be of the same general design, size and style. All proposed substitutes submitted must be accompanied by illustrations showing the design and style. Each illustration is to have on it, or attached to it, the item number of the specified piece to which it is an alternate. Sizes shall also be included. All substitutes shall be listed in the spaces provided. Should additional space be required, the bidder shall use separate sheet of paper to list alternates. Any additional list should be prepared in like form to the bid document. Auburn University will consider all proposed; however, it is not bound to any which, in the University's opinion, is not in the University's best interest.

1.4 - Any deviation from these general terms and conditions or exceptions taken shall be described fully and appended to the bid form on the bidder's letterhead and over the signature of the person authorized to sign the bid form. Such appendages shall be considered part of the bidder's bid form. In the absence of any statement of deviation or exception, the bid shall be accepted as being in strict compliance with all terms and conditions.

1.5 - There are no Federal or State laws that prohibit vendors from submitting bids/quotes lower than a price or bid given to the U. S. Government.

1.6 - The Vendor may be required to furnish a monthly or quarterly summary of purchases made under the provision of the contract. The format and frequency of the report will be determined by the University.

1.7 - Auburn University reserves the right to require a performance bond from the Vendor at the discretion of the University's Procurement Professional. Unless specifically stated otherwise in the bid documents, the cost of the bond shall be paid for entirely by the Vendor. When required, the proper and timely submission of any performance and payment bonds is a material condition for award/performance of this order. Vendor is not authorized to proceed with work and/ or deliveries unless all required bonds have been obtained, are acceptable to and received by the University.

1.8 - Failure of the Vendor to adhere to delivery schedules as specified or to promptly replace rejected materials shall render the Vendor liable for the difference between the "open market" and the quoted price where emergency purchases become necessary.

1.9 - Any and all items received under a resulting contract will be subject to inspection and testing to determine the quality and to ascertain that they meet specifications.

1.10 - Samples, when required, must be furnished free of expense after the opening of the bid and if not destroyed, will upon request, be returned at the Vendor's expense. Request for the return of samples must be made within ten days following the opening of bids/quotations, unless otherwise stated. Each individual sample must be labeled with the Vendor's name and item number.

1.11 - Deliveries shall be F.O.B. Auburn University (destination). Delivery by the Vendor to the common carrier will not constitute delivery to the University.

1.12 - Vendor must agree to replace, free of charge, all defective items delivered under contract. All transportation charges covering return and replacement of items is to be done by the Vendor.

1.13 - Payment for any item delivered may be withheld until all items and conditions have been complied with in full.

1.14 - It is agreed and understood that bidders may attend the bid opening and may inspect the bid tabulation. However, no information will be given out as to opinion concerning the ultimate outcome while consideration of the award is in progress. Information regarding disposition will be available after an award is made and upon request.

1.15 - The Vendor shall maintain, or have available for his own use, an inventory sufficient to make delivery within the time specified in this bid/quotation, provided that no default shall occur to deliver in less than the number of days stated in 2 this bid/quotation from the date of receipt of notice to ship/deliver.

1.16 - Auburn University is not necessarily bound to accept the lowest bid if that bid is contrary to the best interest of the University. In making an award, intangible factors such as the service capability, integrity, facilities, equipment, reputation and past performance of the firm submitting the bid may be weighed. When other factors are clearly stated in the bid document, they will also be used in determining an award. In the case of a tie for low cost, the Procurement Official may use the following: If one of the bidders has an existing contract and performance on an existing contract is satisfactory, this bidder gets the award. Conversely, if performance on an existing contract is documented as not satisfactory, award goes to the other tie bidder. If one tie bidder is local, preference may be given to that bidder.

1.17 - All additional charges such as shipping, installation, insurance or other cost must be fully itemized with the bid/quote. Charges not specified at the time of the bid/quote will not be honored.

1.18 - It is mutually agreed by and between Auburn University and the Vendor that the University's acceptance of the Vendor's offer by the issuance of a Purchase Order shall create a contract between the two parties. Any exceptions taken by the Vendor, which are not included in the Purchase Order, will not be a part of the contract. Therefore, in the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of this bid/quote and information submitted by a bidder, the terms and conditions of this bid/quotation and resulting Purchase Order will govern.

1.19 - The Vendor must provide service manuals with full documentation and schematics when applicable and appropriate.

1.20 - The apparent silence of this specification and any supplemental specifications as to any details, or the omission from it of a detailed description concerning any point shall be regarded as meaning that the best commercial practices are to prevail, and that only materials of first quality and correct type, size, and design are to be used. All workmanship is to be first quality. All interpretations of this specification shall be made on the basis of this statement.

1.21 - Should it become necessary in order to evaluate a Vendor's qualifications, the University may require the bidder to furnish information as indicated below:

1. Financial resources
2. Personnel resources
3. Executive or key person resumes
4. Evidence of ability to meet delivery schedule
5. Ability to meet specification quality requirements
6. Availability of production capacity.

1.22 - In the event that the Vendor fails to make delivery of acceptable goods on or before the agreed delivery date and the University expends unreasonable time, effort, telephone calls and correspondence, the University will bill the supplier at a reasonable cost for such and deduct it from the applicable invoice.

1.23 - Any Purchase Order/contract resulting from this bid/quotation can be cancelled without penalty if any of the following conditions exist:

- a. Breach of contract
- b. The vendor fails to furnish a satisfactory performance bond within the time specified when such a bond is required.
- c. Failure of the vendor to make delivery within the time specified.
- d. In the event material, supplies or equipment furnished does not meet specifications.
- e. Where the contract was obtained by fraud, collusion, conspiracy or any other unlawful means.

The Purchase Order/contract may also be cancelled by convenience by any party. The effective date of cancellation shall be thirty days of written notice of intent by one of the parties.

The Vendor will, however, will be required to honor all orders that were prepared and dated prior to the date of cancellation, if required to do so by the University.

1.24 - The University reserves the right to award as many term contracts for the supply of any class or type of commodity as may be to the best interest of the University.

1.25 - This section will apply when items in the bid/quotation are requested to be on a “furnish and install” basis. The Vendor will have the complete responsibility for the items or system until it is in place and working. Any special installation preparation and requirement will be submitted to the University after the receipt of a purchase order. All transportation and cooperation arrangements will be responsibility of the Vendor. The delivery of equipment will be coordinated so that items will be delivered directly to the installation site. This will minimize the risk of damage and avoid double handling by University personnel.

1.26 - Any alleged oral agreement made by the Vendor with any university department or employee will be disregarded.

1.27 - Prompt payment discounts (“cash discounts”) will not be considered in determining the lowest bidder.
