IV. Executive Committee Report

At the last executive committee meeting, the committee discussed several issues, and one issue was the Healthy Tigers Initiative. Seth Humphries thanks everyone for their participation in this program. Seth also noted that there has been more viewers on the A&P website, and he continued to encouraged the audience to view the website for the latest A&P news. The other items discussed were A&P committee appointments, the one time salary stipend and plans for the October and November assembly meetings.

V. Speaker – Shannon Price (OIT): New Microsoft Employee Email System

Shannon Price was asked to represent the A&P Assembly on a committee that is looking at a new email system, email retention and e-discovery. There is no current policy that covers e-discovery and email retention. Our legal obligation is to abide our own policy. The committee’s responsibility is to determine how long the university wants to keep emails. Auburn University throws away 800 emails per day. There is an email archival system that has been proposed that would allow you to keep an email for a certain number of days. After those certain days, those emails would move to an archival system where you would not be able to delete them. Shannon asked the assembly what we thought would be an appropriate time frame to keep emails. There will be an open forum about the new email system and email retention policy on November 10th at 2:00 pm. Dr. Maizey and Bliss will be there. Quotas will be a lot larger than they are right now. This will keep people from archiving their emails because they are simply running out of space. This new system will not change the users email address including alias’.
VI. Old Business

   a. Healthy Tigers Wellness Program - Participation Update
      Tammy Hollis provided the assembly with an update. This program will continue through November 30\textsuperscript{th}. As of today, of the 4,280 eligible employees, 2,202 have participated. That is about 51% participation. The program has had 120 referrals for the employees to see their general doctor.

      David Hennessey updated the assembly of the stipend. It is a merit based stipend that is available to eligible employees. It is only available to employees who have been employed since June 1, 2010. It is based on your performance evaluations, and each employee can receive anywhere between 0%-6% of your base salary as of May 31st. These stipends are taxable, and about 43% will be deducted from the stipend check. These stipends will be given out in December. David will send out an email to all A&P assembly members with the direct link to the university's website on this stipend, and we should direct our constituents to this website or the payroll and benefits office with any questions.
