

Know your Nominees – Place 12

Biographical Information

Name: Regina R. Williams

Number of years at Auburn University: 1979-1982 College of Veterinary Medicine, Dept. of Pathology; 2004-2008 College of Veterinary Medicine, The Scott-Ritchey Research Center

Current position: Research Assistant II/Biomedical Genetics

Brief statement of current responsibilities: Sample procurement and testing for an RO1 NIH grant (lymphoma); Projects involving genetic therapy for Duchene's muscular dystrophy, autosomal recessive muscular dystrophy, and osteosarcoma; Laboratory management and student mentoring; Interface with faculty and staff from multiple departments concerning collaborative research grants, including the Department of Clinical Sciences.

Previous Auburn University experience: 1991 - BS in Microbiology /Auburn University

Description of prior service on A&P Assembly or committees: I Represent Scott-Ritchey on the Veterinary Staff/AP Board

Campus Address & Phone: Scott-Ritchey Research Center
Room 122
College of Veterinary Medicine
Auburn University, AL 36849
334-844-5582

Email: willrer@auburn.edu