INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT REVIEW AND PLANS

Presentation to University Senate

June 16, 2020

Asim Ali

Today's Topics

- What Worked in Spring 2020
- Opportunities for Improvement
- Classes or Labs with High-Impact/Immersive Experiences
- Fall Support Plans

What worked

- Highly-available, campus-wide support network
- Platform availability
- Online proctoring
- Faculty autonomy
- Actual instruction
- Student access to technology (AU Bookstore collaboration)

Opportunities for Improvement

- Just-in-Time Support
- Assessment design and proctoring
- Quality of delivery – simple changes that improve experience
  - Length of videos
  - Office/Recitation Hours
  - Connecting with Academic Support, Writing Center, Career Services
- Instructor access to technology and training
- Canvas

High-Impact Course Experiences

- Grant program for innovating high-impact course experiences
  - Provost funded; May and June round – 24 projects, $90,000
  - One more round – July 1 review date
  - https://aub.ie/highimpactsupport

AUBURN
Office of the Provost
Biggio Center

Fall Support Plans

- Pedagogical Decision Tree – early July
- Test proctoring options
- Course (Re)Design – June & July participants
- Department/College Workshops on Request – pedagogy and/or technology

Contact

Asim Ali

asim@auburn.edu

334-844-8728

Biggio Tech: biggiotech@auburn.edu

Testing Services: autesting@auburn.edu