I declare, swear, and affirm that the information provided to Auburn University is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief; that in order to be eligible for resident tuition rates at Auburn University the burden of proof lies with me, and that I may be asked to provide further information and documentation. I further understand that, if asked, my failure to provide this documentation will result in an immediate change in residency status and immediate payment for non-resident tuition for all previous semesters in which I was enrolled under resident classification. I understand that all submitted documents, including taxes, may be reviewed by university and state auditors.
