

AU Laboratory Visitors Policy

All visitors in the laboratory shall comply with safety precautions as defined by the Principal Investigator.

Children (under the age of 17) may not enter any laboratory that uses chemicals unless prior approval has been obtained from the Department Head and Chemical Hygiene Officer. Children must be supervised at all times by the PI. At no time should children under 17 be admitted into laboratories that house carcinogens or highly toxic materials.

Source: AU Laboratory Safety Manual

http://www.auburn.edu/administration/safety/lsmchp_03_01.html