I have no personal business or professional relationships with any board members. However, as CEO of Alabama Power, I have 1.4 million customers throughout the State to whom we supply electricity and other related services. We may serve all board members or few members. Those that we serve are served at terms no more favorable than non board members. As a statewide utility we also purchase goods and services from thousands of businesses. I may purchase goods and services from all board members or no board members. If any purchases of goods and services are made from members of this board, they are at terms no more favorable than non board members and are in the ordinary course of business for an electric utility. I have no personal business relationships with any board member. I am not aware of specific business relationships we may have with board members or their organizations.

I serve as Chairman of the Board of Alabama Power Company Foundation (APCF). The APCF has an investment committee to invest the corpus. I do not serve on the investment committee. The investment committee has funds invested with Harbert Venture Capital Partners of which Mr. Harbert is affiliated.
