RE: Recusal from Matters Involving Rock Apartment Advisors and Auburn University

Dear Mr. Davis:

I am the Chairman and CEO of Harbert Management Corporation (HMC) in addition to serving as a Trustee of Auburn University. HMC owns Rock Apartment Advisors (RAA) which is a Birmingham-based commercial real estate firm that focuses exclusively on apartment advisory services. RAA was recently contacted by Auburn University personnel involved with student housing to discuss a proposal under which RAA would advise the University in attracting and negotiating with apartment owners to fill a need for graduate student housing options. I was not involved in Auburn University’s determination that it needed outside assistance with this project or its decision to contact RAA, nor did I participate in any communications between RAA and Auburn University. Auburn University and RAA have now entered into an agreement for RAA to provide these services.

In order to confirm that this agreement is permissible in light of my position on the Board, I sought and received (in coordination with the University’s General Counsel) confirmation from the Ethics Commission that this agreement is permitted and that we were taking the appropriate steps to ensure that it was handled properly. In accordance with that confirmation, this letter is to inform you that I will recuse myself from any vote or discussion that comes before the Board involving RAA or the graduate student housing master lease on which RAA is advising Auburn University. I ask for your assistance in helping me ensure that I do not inadvertently vote or otherwise participate in Board discussions on these matters. I also should not be provided with any information involving RAA or this lease in the course of my service on the Board. To the extent that matters involving RAA or this lease are to come before the Board, please notify other Trustees of my recusal so that they will be aware that I cannot communicate with them on these matters.

Thank you for your assistance. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Raymond J. Harbert

COMMENT PAGE “A” FOR CHARLES D. McCRARY

I have no personal business or professional relationships with any board members. However, as CEO of Alabama Power, I have 1.4 million customers throughout the State to whom we supply electricity and other related services. We may serve all board members or few members. Those that we serve are served at terms no more favorable than non board members. As a statewide utility we also purchase goods and services from thousands of businesses. I may purchase goods and services from all board members or no board members. If any purchases of goods and services are made from members of this board, they are at terms no more favorable than non board members and are in the ordinary course of business for an electric utility. I have no personal business relationships with any board member. I am not aware of specific business relationships we may have with board members or their organizations.

I serve as Chairman of the Board of Alabama Power Company Foundation (APCF). The APCF has an investment committee to invest the corpus. I do not serve on the investment committee. The investment committee has funds invested with Harbert Venture Capital Partners of which Mr. Harbert is affiliated.

In regards to Auburn University, Alabama Power Company provides electric service to the University as a normal course of events. I have no contractual, employment, personal or familial interest at Auburn other than as described above.
