The following list accompanies the African Fables section to be found in the Allyn & Bacon Anthology of Traditional Literature edited by Judith V. Lechner, Allyn & Bacon, 2003.

• Gregorowski, Christopher. Fly Eagle Fly: An African Fable. Illustrated by Nikki Daly. Margaret K. McElderry, 2000. In this modern adaptation of an allegorical fable first told by a Guinean writer, the author reset the story in South Africa. It tells of an eagle fledgling that a farmer raised among the chickens. The eagle thought it was a chicken till a friend took him to a high cliff where he discovered that he was meant to soar.

• Holt, David and Bill Mooney. More Ready-to-tell Tales form Around the World. August House, 2000. The forty-five tales include fables. Good resource for adults teaching children and young adults the art of storytelling. There is something here for all ages.

• McDonald, Margaret Read. Mabela the Clever. Illustrated by Tim Coffrey. Morton Grove, IL: Albert Whitman, 2000. In this story from Sierra Leone, a mouse avoids being eaten by the cat by not being gullible and by paying attention to what the cat was doing.

• McNeil, Heather. Hyena and the Moon. [sound recording]. Libraries Unlimited. 1 sound cassette. 64 min. 15 sec. This story is from Kenya.

• Thornhill, Jan. Crow and Fox and Other Animal Legends. Simon and Schuster, 1993. Among the nine animal tales from these international collection is included one from West Africa.
