

FERPA Compliance Worksheet

Part 1: Does the service or vendor require disclosure of:

YES NO

- Student's name, parent's name(s), or other family member's name(s);
- Student's address or phone number(s) or family's address or phone number(s);
- Any personal identifiers (SSNs, campus ID numbers; AU User IDs; e-mail addresses);
- A list of personal characteristics or other information that would make the student's identity easily traceable?

Does the service or vendor require disclosure of student records for participation, such as:

YES NO

- Transcripts, disciplinary records, and/or NCAA records;
- Tests, exams, and/or papers;
- Photos (still or video);
- E-mail messages to and from students;
- Databases from which names have been removed, if identity could be deduced?

If you answer YES to any of these, the student's voluntary written consent is required before the information can be disclosed: See Part 2.

Part 2: Do you have voluntary consent from the student. No student can be compelled to allow disclosure as part of a course requirement.

YES NO

- In writing,
- Signed and dated by the student,
- Specifying records to be disclosed,
- Purpose for their disclosure, and
- Persons to whom they will be disclosed?

If voluntary written consent is given, Auburn has a continuing responsibility following a disclosure. You must agree to:

- Notify service or vendor that the disclosed information may be used only for the purpose specified (copies must be retained and kept with class or project records);
- Keep a record of each request and disclosure made and keep it with the relevant education record as long as the records are maintained (i.e., record of accounts established; records of interaction with service);
- Keep a record of the parties (service or vendor) who requested or received the disclosed information and their legitimate interest in the information.
