Approval Date: July 24, 1998 or earlier

Effective Date: July 20, 2007

Policy:

1. The Officers of this chapter shall consist of a President, a President Elect (July 24, 1998), a Secretary, and a Treasurer.
2. The management of the chapter's affairs and the development and guidance of its program or activities shall be the responsibility of the Board of Directors or the Chapter. The Board shall have seven members, consisting of the five chapter officers, together with two additional Board members elected from the chapter membership. The chapter officers and other members of the Board shall hold office until the second annual meeting following their election or until their successors have been elected and installed.
3. At least thirty days prior to the expiration of the terms of the officers and other members of the Board, the President shall appoint a nominating committee of their members. This committee shall present to the membership its nomination of the chapter officers and Board members. The report of the nominating committee shall be voted on by the chapter membership at the annual election and at that time additional nominations may be submitted from the floor.
4. All members of the chapter shall have a voice in the affairs of the chapter. On matters calling for a decision by the chapter membership, voting shall be by voice or by ballot as the members may describe.
5. The Board of Directors shall meet at the call of the President, such meetings to be held at least annually. Board meetings shall be for the purpose of reviewing the activities of the chapter, developing plans for future activities and for considering other matters brought to the attention of the Board, of the chapter officers, or by the chapter membership.
6. If any of the chapter officers should resign or be unable to discharge the duties of their office and if the unexpired portion of the term is 90 days or more, the Board of Directors shall call a special election. If the unexpired portion of the term is less than 90 days, the Board of Directors shall designate one of the Board members to discharge the duties of the office until the next regular election is held.

Supersedes: Page 1 of 2

Approval Date: July 24, 1998 or earlier

Effective Date: July 20, 2007

Policy:

1. Past President (July 11, 1995) -
2. President - It shall be the duty of the President to provide the general management of the corporation's business. The President, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, shall appoint and remove, employ and discharge, and fix the compensation of all agents and employees of this corporation other than officers elected by the Board of Directors. The President shall see that the books, reports, statements, and certificates required by law are properly kept, made and filed according to law. He or she shall submit an annual report of the operations of this corporation to the Board of Directors at its first annual meeting following the close of the corporation's fiscal year, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, and from time to time he or she shall report to the Board of Directors all matters within his or her knowledge which the interests of this corporation may require to be brought to the Board of Director's attention. In general, he or she shall perform all duties normally incident to his or her office. The President shall preside at all meetings of the chapter and the Board of Directors. The President shall appoint the nominating committee, together with such other committees as the Board may deem necessary or appropriate for carrying on the activities of the chapter.
3. President Elect, (July 24, 1998) - The President Elect of this corporation shall generally assist the President and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors. Included in such duties shall be developing and conducting the program for the annual meeting of the members, with the assistance of the Alabama League of Municipalities, the Center for Governmental Services at Auburn University and the Association of County Commissions of Alabama. In the event of the death, resignation, absence or inability to act of the President, he or she shall assume and discharge pro tempore the powers and duties of the President of the corporation. The President Elect serves a two-year term as President Elect and a two-year term as President. (July 24, 1998)

4. Secretary - The secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors. He or she shall have charge of the corporation's books and records. He or she shall keep in safe custody the seal of this corporation and, when authorized by the Board of Directors, shall affix the seal to any instrument requiring the same. In general, he or she shall perform all the duties normally incident to his office. The Secretary shall be responsible for keeping the membership records of the chapter, for notifying members of chapter meetings, and for submitting an annual report of the chapter's activities to the IPMA - HR containing a summary of chapter activities, new officers and a financial report.

4. Treasurer - The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of and be responsible for all the funds, securities, evidences of indebtedness and other valuable documents of the corporation, and deposit all such funds in the name of the corporation in such banks, or trust companies, or other depositories, or in such safe deposit vaults as the Board of Directors may designate. The Treasurer and/or such other persons as the Board of Directors may designate, shall sign, make and endorse in the name of the corporation all checks, notes, drafts, bills of exchange, acceptances and other instruments for the payment of money, and pay out and dispose of the same and receipt therefore, under the direction of the President or the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall render a statement of the condition of the finances of the corporation at each annual meeting of the Board of Director, and at other times as shall be required of him or her. The Treasurer shall keep at the office of the corporation full and accurate books of account of all its business and transactions and such other books of account as the Board of Directors may require, and shall exhibit the same to any member upon application therefore. In general, he or she shall perform all the duties normally incident to this office. If requested, he or she shall give the corporation a bond for the faithful discharge of his or her duties in such amount and with such surety as the Board of Directors shall prescribe.

Subject: Case Study

Policy Number: 0404

Supersedes:

Page 1 of 2

Approval Date: August 2003 or earlier

Effective Date: July 20, 2007

Policy:

Purpose:

Recognizing that most public personnel administrators have specialist duties, the intent of the case study is to permit a candidate to work in-depth on a particular Human Resource issue or problem that has been face on the job. The goal is for a candidate to demonstrate how the coursework and knowledge gained in the course of the AAPPA program has contributed to the candidate becoming a better practitioner in the field.

Technical Specifications:

The case study must be typed, double-spaced and approximately 10-15 pages in length of original work. The total length does not include any appendices, attachments, correspondence, bibliography, etc.

The case study should include the following points:

1. Identification, description and analysis of the problem;
2. Relevance of the problem and issues to public personnel management practice and theory;
3. Analysis of various approaches, considerations and issues associated with the selected problem;
4. Discussion of the implementation of the solution to the problem; and
5. Evaluation of the result.

Committee:

Committees will consist of a professional member of the CGS staff or senior program instructor and an outside senior professional member of the Association with expertise in the applicant's problem area.

The chair of the education committee of the Association will work with the Center for Governmental Services to identify an appropriate Association member to serve on the case study committee.

CGS will review the first draft of the case study when it is submitted and work with the candidate to ensure that the draft meets basic standards of legibility, style, grammar and professional content before it is submitted to the committee members.

The Association member of the committee will review the approved draft and comment on its suitability for acceptance within two weeks of receipt of the draft from CGS. If the members of the committee determine that the case study is unacceptable in its current form, CGS will communicate that information to the candidate and work out another schedule of submission.

Schedule:

- Candidates who intend to write a case study must apply to do so to CGS by the established deadline date.
- CGS will inform the candidate of acceptance and suitability of topic suggested in a timely manner.
- If the topic is deemed suitable, and the candidate meets other eligibility requirements to write the case study, a committee will be formed and named by the first of October.
- The candidate has until the established deadline date to write and submit the draft of the case study to CGS.
- If the submitted draft meets the general specifications of the case study, CGS will forward the case study to the committee members.
- If the case study is approved by the committee prior to July 1st and all other requirements are met, the candidate will be eligible to be awarded the Certified Human Resource Specialist certification at that year's annual conference.

Appendix: Course Descriptions

AAPPA Course Descriptions

Group 1: Required Core Courses

Overview of Alabama Public Personnel Administration (16 hours)

This course provides a broad overview of several major topic areas that are fundamental to public personnel administrators with responsibilities in human resource management. Major topic areas will include: employment law, employee recruitment and selection, salary and wage administration, performance appraisal, nature of jobs in local government, and personnel policies and procedures.

Federal and State Laws in Public Personnel Management (16 hours)

A fundamental responsibility of the public personnel administrator is to ensure compliance of the governmental entity with the numerous laws and regulations affecting human resource administration in the public sector. This course provides the legal context, history and emerging legal trends for practicing public personnel administration. The course includes discussion and application of such laws as the Civil Rights Act, Americans with Disabilities Act, Equal Pay Act, and Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

Fair Labor Standards Act and Other Laws Administered by the U. S. Dept. of Labor (16 hours)

Since 1985, public employers have been subject to most of the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), including minimum wages, maximum hours, overtime pay, and record-keeping requirements. This course provides an overview and discussion on special provisions, amendments, investigation and complaint procedures, and requirements of local governments regarding the FLSA, Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), and provisions of the Immigration and Naturalization Act (INA) applicable to the public sector.

Group 2: Human Resource Administration Track

Compensation and Job Evaluation (12 hours)

This course covers information that a human resource professional needs to design and maintain a compensation system in a public jurisdiction. Topics include; a review of legal influences, job analysis and job evaluation methods, pay surveys, designing and administering a pay structure, and legally required and discretionary benefits.

Payroll & Benefits ((6 hours)

This course will present an integrated approach to compensation. Topics include job evaluation and its role in establishing a pay structure, the position classification process, and determining relative worth jobs.

Risk Management & Safety Issues (6 hours)

In this course, participants will learn the full definition of risk management, the importance of understanding workplace safety, recognizing barriers to safety programs, and general guidelines of accident investigations. Workers compensation law updates will be discussed as well as, designing and implementing a successful safety incentive program that will minimize the adverse effects of accidents, generate enthusiasm and help add to the bottom line of any city, county, and state agency.

Group 3: Human Resource Management Track

Job Analysis and Job Description (6 hours)

The foundation of any public human resource organization is the creation and maintenance of a comprehensive and updated system of job analysis and job descriptions. This short course provides an introduction to the benefits and methods of job analysis; procedures for the development and maintenance of job descriptions; and practical methods to integrate job descriptions with the selection, performance evaluation, promotion, and compensation processes of the public organization.

Recruitment, Selection and Retention (12 hours)

This course examines legal implications of recruitment and selection practices, and provides a working knowledge of job success predictors, pre-employment inquiries, and affirmative action planning. The course also provides necessary information on developing employees and measuring work contributions, compensating employees and reducing turnover.

Performance Appraisals and Employee Evaluation (12 hours)

This course provides managers and supervisors with in-depth coverage of the procedures necessary to effectively plan and conduct performance appraisals, establish performance expectations, and communicate evaluation feedback to employees. The course also provides personnel administrators with an understanding of the key roles of performance evaluations and the legal issues relevant to evaluation procedures.

Group 4: Selected Issues in Public Human Resource Management

Training & Development (6 hours)

This course focuses on the importance of investing in employees by creating and offering Training and Development opportunities within the work place. Course objectives include conducting needs assessments, developing effective course objectives and lesson plans, and evaluating programs. Participants will analyze team-building exercises to assist them in understanding the development process. Discussion topics will also include; researching materials, creating lesson plans, different training styles and selecting teaching aids. Emphasis will be placed on identifying and understanding the special needs of the adult learner.

Motivating Employees (6 hours)

In this course, supervisors and managers learn how to employ a variety of techniques that will aid them in creating a motivating and rewarding work environment. The course will cover essential elements of goal setting and factors that influence the motivational impact of goal setting such as goal characteristics, task complexity, and employee self-efficacy. This course will also cover methods of assessing and modifying the work environment to enhance motivation; intrinsic versus extrinsic motivation; and distributive versus procedural justice and the motivational influences of each.

Dealing With Troubled Employees (6 hours)

This course is designed to equip supervisors with the necessary knowledge and skills to identify the signs that an employee may need assistance and the appropriate procedures to follow once a potential problem is recognized. Major topics covered in this course will include: problem recognition, documentation procedures, how to confront employees in a constructive manner, referral options, and reintegration into the workplace. Issues relevant to the Americans with Disabilities Act will also be covered.

Developing and Maintaining Personnel Policies and Procedures (6 hours)

A public organization's personnel policies and procedures can be an effective tool in enhancing morale, improving productivity, maintaining discipline, and avoiding unnecessary litigation. This short course provides guidelines to assist the HR manager of a public organization to review the policies and procedures of the government or agency to ensure that they are up-to-date, practical, and legal. In addition, the course discusses ways that the HR manager can help the elected officials, appointed officials, and the front line supervisors understand and follow these procedures competently and fairly.

Establishing a System; Working with Elected Officials, Department Heads, & Supervisors (6 hours)

A challenge for public personnel administrations is the need to continually work with a changing group of elected and appointed officials who often have limited background or experience with human resource issues in the public sector, but have major responsibilities and obligations in this area. This course discusses ways to communicate the following with the elected officials; information on the human resource administration functions in their jurisdiction, and their obligations and roles within the administration.
