Auburn CEOE Summer Counselor Positions

Description:
The Office of the Vice President for Outreach is home to The Center of Educational Outreach and Engagement (CEOE) which offers academic summer academies for underrepresented and underprivileged students and partners with the GEAR UP program.

Academic academy counselors lead, instruct, and supervise academy participants and perform duties required by the Academy Director. Counselors work in teams (led by a Lead Counselor) to ensure smooth and safe academy operations, while creating an extraordinary Auburn Experience for academy participants through superior customer service. Counselors will be selected based on application, experience, recommendations and participation in required training. Please see www.aub.ie/ceoe for more information about The Center for Educational Outreach and Engagement.
