Join your peers and help us as we strengthen the Fulbright Association’s role in global engagement through research and scholarship, teaching and community outreach programming across these Core Impact Areas:

- International Education
- Global Health
- Peace-making & Conflict Resolution
- Economic Development & Entrepreneurship
- Sustainability

Conference Highlights

- Opening Dinner and Keynote Address
- Women’s Empowerment Panels
- Global Health in the DRC Panel
- Fulbright Alumni City Tour of Atlanta

Opening Dinner Welcome
Atlanta Mayor Kasim Reed

Here’s Some Great Things To Look Forward To:

- Opening Keynote with 2014 Nobel Peace Laureate Kailash Satyarthi
- Empowering Women themed sessions with various focuses such as Women’s Empowerment, Peacemaking & Human Rights, Social Entrepreneurship
- Fulbright Scholar Panel Discussions on Women’s Empowerment, Peacemaking & Human Rights, Social Entrepreneurship, Diversity, Women & Peace-making in Conflict Zones, and Largest Mass Migration in over 50 Years: Causes in the war-torn Middle East/Africa and influx challenges in Europe
- Selma Jeanne Cohen Dance Lecture
  Apply now to possibly present and perform!
- Water in Africa featuring Professor Zipa Vokhiwa of Mercer University and Bea Perez, Chief Sustainability Officer, The Coca-Cola Company

Dikembe Mutombo with four Fulbrighters as part of a joint effort with the GA chapter. 2nd from left is the U.S. Embassy in Kinshasa’s Deputy Chief of Mission in the Congo, Eric Madison, a Fulbrighter, who will speak on the DRC panel.

Additional High Impact Speakers:

- Ambassador Andrew Young
- Dr. David Satcher, former U.S. Surgeon General and CDC Director
- Laura Turner Seydel, Chairperson, Captain Planet Foundation
- Dr. John Eaves, Chairman, Fulton County Board of Commissioners (two time Fulbright recipient)
- Dr. Valerie Montgomery Rice, President, Morehouse School of Medicine

FIVE SIGNATURE PRESENTERS

Kailash Satyarthi, 2014 Nobel Peace Laureate
Louis Sullivan, MD
U.S. Secretary, Health & Human Services (1989-93)

Bea Perez, Chief Sustainability Officer
The Coca-Cola Company

WATER IN AFRICA - EMPOWERING WOMEN EMPOWERS ENTIRE COMMUNITY

Panel featuring Professor Zipangani Vokhiwa, Mercer University and Bea Perez, Chief Sustainability Officer, The Coca-Cola Company

Register Today!

Registration, sponsorship, and hotel information can be found at www.fulbright.org

Please consider sponsoring a Fulbright student for $295.00