

All Bullock County residents will have the sustained opportunity to enjoy the highest quality of life in a safe, clean, and healthy environment and be empowered to be self-sufficient and to successfully compete individually and collectively in a global economy. From a united and cooperative effort, Bullock County will achieve comprehensive growth in all economic sectors such that job opportunities are commensurate with demand, general skill and wage levels have a positive trend, and the community has a healthy, diversified industrial base.

Bullock County 2005
Ten-Year Strategic Plan for Change
Economic Development Institute, Auburn University

VISION FOR CHANGE