This year’s OLLI Day Alabama celebration will feature four outstanding speakers. The event is open to the public as well as OLLI members in two formats – In-person or Online. To learn more about the speakers, visit: www.auburn.edu/outreach/olli.

To register for this event: Register for OLLI Day Alabama 2021 or call Danell LaPread, 334-844-3135 and select your format - Online or In-person.

In-person: The event will be held in the Sunny Slope Annex. Sessions hosted by UAH & UA will be shown on the large screen monitor via Zoom.

Online: The event is available to the online community via Zoom. Upon registration, you will receive an email with the zoom links.

Schedule of Events

8:30 AM CST          Welcomes from each University

- Dr. Jonathon Halbesleben, Dean of The College of Continuing Studies, The University of Alabama.
- Dr. Royrickers Cook. Vice-President and Associate Provost of University Outreach, Auburn University.

9:00 AM CST          Morning Session hosted by OLLI at UAH

- Huntsville Mayor Tommy Battle – OLLI Day Proclamation
- Speaker: Dr. E.C. (Curt) Fields will be present Ulysses S. Grant, The Man Behind the Uniform and A to follow

10:30 AM CST         Break

11:00 AM CST         Session hosted by OLLI at Auburn

- Auburn Mayor Ron Anders and Opelika Mayor Gary Fuller – OLLI Day Proclamation
- Speaker: Dr. Bill Deutsch presents Ancient Life in Alabama and the Fall term Wild Alabama series

12:15 PM CST         Break

12:30 PM CST         Brown Bag Lunch hosted by OLLI at UA

- Speaker: Dr. Kelly Jane Rosenblatt, Osher Foundation Program Manager, presents The Osher Story

1:45 PM CST          Break

2:00 PM CST          Afternoon Session hosted by OLLI at UA

- Tuscaloosa Mayor Walt Maddox – OLLI Day Proclamation
- Speaker: Dr. Ron Dulek, author Sitting with Elephants: Lessons in Humility from the African Bush. Ron shares lessons he and his wife, Sally, learned while spending fifteen summers living in an African bush house.

OLLI Day Wrap-Up