ALATEC - Assistive Technology - The Tool to Independence
October 11-12, 2016 @ AUBURN UNIVERSITY STUDENT CENTER

The Alabama Assistive Technology Expo and Conference (ALATEC) will provide an opportunity for professionals (e.g. educators, rehabilitation counselors, EI personnel, Speech/Language Pathologists, therapists, persons with disabilities, their families and loved ones, other service providers and vendors to exchange and gather information relative to the accessibility, universal design for learning, and availability of assistive technology to improve the lives for everyone. ALATEC will provide professional development and training to increase the knowledge and skills in a variety of areas including, but not limited to: Adult Services, Education/Learning, Visual and Hearing Impairment, Communication, and Physical Accessibility/Mobility.

Call for Proposal: Online Call for Proposal Application

Over 20 Breakout Sessions Including:
• Universal Design for Learning
• Assistive Technology for Higher Education
• Hands on Workshops –
• And many more…

Over 20 Vendors including:
• Freedom Scientific
• Alabama Institute for the Deaf & Blind
• TASC
• And many more…

FOR MORE INFORMATION GO TO: http://www.auburn.edu/alatec
Lunch provided both days.
Stipends available for the first 80 Individuals with Disabilities, Family Members, & Caregivers