More about this seminar...

The Influence Through Accountability seminar offer effective tools for developing leadership skills for individuals professionally and personally. Being able to influence others is a key skill for any leader trying to reach their goals. This seminar challenges and equips participants to take the first steps towards growing their ability to influence those that they lead at home and at work.

Influence Through Accountability is the second seminar in the four-part EAGLE Leadership Series. This widely-used and highly-effective leadership resource was developed by Dr. Larry Little as a tool to help leaders increase their leadership capacity and their ability to make a difference in the lives of those they lead personally and professionally, starting with themselves.

The seminar is engaging, interactive, and loaded with actionable takeaways. Starting by identifying their own accountability style, participants will leave with the knowledge and tools they need to begin holding themselves accountable to their own leadership strategy and influencing others more effectively.
