Musical Theatre Camp 2012
July 15 - 20, 2012

Conducted by faculty and staff from Auburn University’s Department of Theatre, Musical Theatre Camp is an exciting opportunity for rising 9th through 12th grade students interested in the field of musical theatre, which incorporates music, dance, movement, and acting.

The program is an innovative, intensive week-long residential workshop designed for music, theatre, dance, and show choir students. Students receive individual attention and guidance from Department of Theatre faculty and staff. The camp will culminate with a musical theatre revue presented on the final day of camp.

Participants will experience campus-life while residing in Auburn’s resident dormitories, eating at campus dining facilities, and enjoying evening social and recreational activities. Camp participants will have 24/7 counselor supervision.

Cost is $615 per person and covers all instruction, housing, meals, and recreational activities.
