

Service Learning Colloquia Speakers

Vincent Ilustre

Vincent Ilustre is the Executive Director of the Center of Public Service, directs operations of the center, provides leadership to the center's staff and works with the center's Faculty Executive Committee to ensure that the academic mission is achieved. Vincent received his Bachelor's degree in Sociology and Political Science from Tulane's Paul Tulane College and his Master's in Business Administration in Management and Marketing from Tulane's Freeman School of Business. Vincent also serves as Secretary/Treasurer of the International Association for Service-learning and Community Engagement. He is also a member of the Board of Director's of VIALink and a Commissioner with the Louisiana Serve Commission.

Service Learning Course Design

Designing and implementing a service learning course can be tough the first time out. This presentation shows you the steps of designing a Service Learning Course along with other useful Service Learning information.

Powerpoint Presentation (ilustre/ilustreppowerpoint.pdf)

Ilustre spoke on Wednesday, February 8, 2012, in the Auburn University Student Center

Last Updated: November 8, 2013