COMMUNITY PARTNER TRAINING

Team Leadership Training
Tuesday, July 16, 2019
1-2:30 p.m.
Location: Auburn Chamber of Commerce (714 E. Glenn Ave.)

Leadership skills which include extra commitment, passion and dedication are important in the nonprofit sector. Nurturing these skills and characteristics in the employees you already have can be hugely rewarding and beneficial. It can be key to growing nonprofit core competencies among board members and volunteers alike. Effective leadership training can help build a team that will better serve an organization and help meet its goals. The Office of Public Service invites you to join us for leadership development training, Tuesday, July 16, 2019, 1-2:30 p.m. at the Auburn Chamber of Commerce. Admission is free, but seating is limited. To reserve a seat, contact Whitney Lee, wc10011@auburn.edu.

Please contact Whitney Lee at wc10011@auburn.edu if you would like to reserve a seat. The session is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be provided.

Julia Wiard serves as the Instructor and Coordinator for the Leadership Minor in the College of Liberal Arts. She has served as an instructor for the program since 2011 and has worked with both academic and co-curricular leadership development over the past 13 years. She has worked with various student organizations and departments to provide leadership and professional development while at Auburn University, including the Office of Greek Life, the Office of Risk Management and Safety, and Auburn Athletics. She received a BS in educational psychology from Mississippi State University and her MS in college student personnel administration from the University of Central Arkansas. Julia lives in Auburn with her husband, Nick, and their two daughters, Hayden and Avery.
