

Outreach Scholarship Symposium 2009

DATESAVER

Wednesday, April 22, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm., Dixon Conference Center

Keynote speaker: Daniel S. Papp, Ph.D. President, Kennesaw State University

Daniel S. Papp became the third president of Kennesaw State University July 1, 2006. Prior to being named president by the Board of Regents, Papp served as senior vice chancellor for academics and fiscal affairs of the University System of Georgia. Senior vice chancellor since 2000, Papp was responsible for system-wide academic, faculty and student issues and concerns; business and financial affairs; academic and business information-technology systems; and strategic planning affecting all of the university system's 35 institutions. Before becoming senior vice chancellor, Papp directed educational programs for Yamacraw, Georgia's initiative to become the global leader in broadband technologies and components. Papp served as interim president of Southern Polytechnic State University from 1997 to 1998 and as executive assistant to the president at Georgia Tech from 1994 to 1997. An international affairs expert, Papp was the founding director of Georgia Tech's Sam Nunn School of International Affairs from 1990 to 1993 and director of the Georgia Tech School of Social Sciences from 1980 to 1990. He joined Georgia Tech's faculty in 1973 as an assistant professor of international affairs.
