

Mike Kensler new Director of the Office of Sustainability, Campus Sustainability Operations.

Mr. Kensler joins us from the Auburn University Water Resources Center where he held the position as the Outreach Programs Administrator. His background is in natural resources management, planning, and policy, civic engagement, organizational learning, and the ecological, economic, and social aspects of sustainability. He has previously held positions with the Chesapeake Bay Foundation and National Wildlife Federation.

2011 Green School Fellows

U.S. Green Building Council

Deadline: February 28th

More information: www.centerforgreenschools.org/fellowship.

Annual SOS/CHEWUP Creek Crossing Clean-Up

Saturday, March 5.

7:30 for breakfast (RSVP), 8:00 for work assignments

Covenant Presbyterian Church on Shelton Road in Auburn.

For breakfast at 7:30 you need to RSVP by Wednesday March 1st to Rita Grub rzg0009@auburn.edu or Wendy Seesock seesowc@auburn.edu).

Wear OLD clothes, sturdy shoes, and if you have them, work gloves.

FILM: No Impact Man to celebrate the kickoff of No Impact Week.

Wednesday, March 23rd

5:00 pm

Student Center Ballroom

Question and answer session to follow.

View the trailer at: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z9Ctt7FGFBo>

For information on No Impact Week visit this blog: <http://wp.auburn.edu/cce/>

Personal Energy Fair for Green Lunch Series in March

Tuesday, March 29th

11:30 am - 2:00 pm

Student Center, Room 2222 and 2223

Learn about energy! Ride the energy bike! Save money and resources!

Bring your laptop for help on energy saving modes!

Bring your lunch and play Energy Bingo!

Auburn University is currently 11th in the ONE Campus Challenge.

ONE is a national organization focused on raising awareness about extreme poverty, HIV/AIDS, vaccines, hunger, and other related global issues. Auburn Sustainability Action Program (ASAP), a student organization, is currently organizing the ONE Campus Challenge at Auburn in order to increase awareness and excitement about all current global and poverty-related student initiatives that are currently happening at Auburn. This is a points-based competition ending March 31st between universities nationwide. Get involved by visiting: <http://www.one.org/campus/thestandings.html>