

Auburn University

General Scholarships

Requirements

Eligible students are automatically considered for any General Scholarship for which they meet the criteria. Unless otherwise noted, recipients are selected by the Office of University Scholarships, and the minimum academic requirements for consideration are as follows:

- Incoming freshmen — Accepted for admission and a minimum 3.0 high school GPA
- Transfer students — Accepted for admission and a minimum 3.0 transfer GPA
- Current students — Minimum 3.0 cumulative, unadjusted AU GPA

For incoming freshmen, priority consideration is given to students who met the Freshman Scholarship priority deadline of December 1 and have a minimum 28 ACT or 1240 SAT score and 3.25 high school GPA. For transfer students, priority consideration is given to students with a minimum 3.25 transfer GPA.

To receive consideration for need-based scholarships, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year by the Financial Aid priority deadline of March 1.

Criteria

Criteria for General Scholarships include but are not limited to geography, class standing, academics, financial need, and/or affiliation with a particular organization. General Scholarships are awarded for one year with award amounts varying from $500 to tuition (2/3 tuition for non-residents). Approximately 50% of General Scholarships give preference to incoming freshmen, and approximately 50% of them give preference to students who demonstrate financial need.
