National Scholars
National Merit Finalists and National Achievement Finalists receive a National Scholars Presidential Scholarship that includes:
› $80,000 over four years ($20,000 per year)
› $1,000 technology stipend in the first fall semester
› On-campus housing stipend for one year*
› $2,500 enrichment experience stipend available for one semester after the second year for study abroad or undergraduate research
› $4,000-$8,000 stipend over four years ($1,000-$2,000 per year), depending on eligibility as determined by National Merit Scholarship Corporation and financial need as determined through completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

A National Scholars Presidential Scholarship replaces an Academic Scholarship if previously awarded.

National Merit and Achievement semifinalists who have a minimum 3.5 high school GPA and meet the January 15 application for admission priority deadline receive an Academic Heritage Scholarship, replacing a Freshman Scholarship of lesser value if previously offered. *Housing application required. Housing availability and assignments determined by the Department of University Housing.

Academic Scholarships
Four-year, renewable scholarships are awarded at three levels beginning in October to non-resident students with a minimum 29 ACT or 1290 SAT score and a 3.5 high school GPA. Students must have the minimum test score and high school GPA required for consideration at each level.

Presidential Scholarship
› Requires a 33-36 ACT (1440-1600 SAT) score and a minimum 3.5 high school GPA.
› Awarded at $64,000 over four years ($16,000 per year).

Heritage Scholarship
› Requires a 31-32 ACT (1360-1430 SAT) score and a minimum 3.5 high school GPA.
› Awarded at $48,000 over four years ($12,000 per year).

Charter Scholarship
› Requires a 29-30 ACT (1290-1350 SAT) score and a minimum 3.5 high school GPA.
› Awarded at $24,000 over four years ($6,000 per year).

Incoming students accepted for admission must complete the scholarship application through the Auburn University Scholarship Opportunity Manager (AUSOM) by midnight CST on February 10 to receive consideration for Freshman and General Scholarships awarded by the Office of University Scholarships, as well as Departmental Scholarships awarded by Auburn’s colleges and schools. Students planning to apply for scholarships must complete the admission application with all required materials received by the January 15 application for admission priority deadline. Students who elect to test after the December ACT and SAT test dates are advised Auburn University cannot guarantee scores will be received and processed by the scholarship application deadline. For more information, please visit auburn.edu/scholarship.

Students should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), available online January 1 at fafsa.ed.gov. The FAFSA should be received by March 1 for consideration of need-based scholarships or April 1 for consideration of all other financial aid opportunities. For additional information, please visit auburn.edu/finaid.

*The FAFSA is the only form a student is required to complete to be considered for student assistance from any of the Title IV, HEA programs, except for information needed to ensure the student’s eligibility for such assistance as in q, information needed to complete verification or to demonstrate compliance with student eligibility procedures of the HEA and the regulations. Additional information, if requested, will be listed on the student’s Tiger Financial Aid Requirements page after the student’s FAFSA results are received. For additional information, visit auburn.edu/finaid.

APPROXIMATELY 60% OF FRESHMEN ARE AWARDED A SCHOLARSHIP.

General Scholarships
Require a minimum 3.0 high school GPA for consideration.

Criteria vary, including, but not limited to, geographic location as defined by city, county, or state of residence and/or high school attended, academic achievement, and financial need.

Awarded in early April, and the award amounts vary.

Departmental Scholarships
Requirements for consideration vary by college and school.

Criteria vary, including, but not limited to, academic major, geographic location, academic achievement, and financial need.

Awarded in early April, and the award amounts vary.

MORE THAN $7 MILLION IN GENERAL AND DEPARTMENTAL SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AWARDED ANNUALLY.

Important Notes
Minimum academic requirements for scholarship consideration and award amounts are for students planning to enroll Summer or Fall 2016 and are subject to change for enrollment in future terms.

For the purposes of awarding scholarships, the highest composite ACT or total SAT score from a single test date is used, and the writing score is not considered.

Estimate Your Cost of Attendance
The Auburn University Net Price Calculator is designed to help you estimate your net price of attendance at Auburn by calculating tuition, fees, and housing charges against financial aid awards for which you may qualify. To get started, visit auburn.edu/freshmancalc.
