

Scholarship Opportunity for Society of Women Engineers Members

We are pleased to announce that Chevron Corporation is sponsoring scholarships available for Spring 2010 for members of the Society of Women Engineers (SWE). Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who will be enrolled in Chemical, Civil, Electrical, or Mechanical Engineering during the Spring 2010 semester are eligible to apply. Award will be based upon involvement in SWE and academic standing. Criteria for applying for the scholarships follow.

Scholarship Criteria

- Scholarships will be awarded for Spring Semester 2010
- Student must be
  - Sophomore, Junior, or Senior enrolled full-time in Chemical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, or Mechanical Engineering at Auburn University
  - Active member of SWE and current with National dues
  - In good academic standing

Application Materials Required

- ✚ One-page resume
- ✚ One page summary of involvement in SWE activities, including a statement of SWE membership status

Send all materials in one package to:

Dr. Cheryl Seals, SWE Advisor
Department of Computer Science & Software Engineering
Samuel Ginn College of Engineering
3101 Shelby Center for Engineering Technology
Auburn, Alabama 36849-6

All application materials must be received by Thursday, November 19, 2009