Submissions

1. Submit three hard copies of your manuscript and an electronic file in Microsoft Word for Windows. Electronic files may be transmitted on diskette or CD or (preferably) as an e-mail attachment. Please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope for the return of your essay.

Formatting Text

2. Double-space the entire manuscript—text, block quotations, notes, captions for illustrations, etc.
3. Use one-inch margins all around—top, bottom, left, and right.
4. Use left alignment throughout, not justified.
5. Place title on the first page of article, but do not include the author's name anywhere in the manuscript.
6. Place page numbers at the bottom right of pages.
7. Use italics rather than underlining for titles.
The following word is not italicized:
 ibid.
The following word is italicized:
 [sic]
8. Use 12-point font for all text, block quotations, notes, and captions. We prefer Times New Roman or similar non-proportional fonts.
9. Use square brackets—[]—to indicate missing or illegible words and interpolations or alterations within quotations. See Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed., 6.104, 11.66-11.68.
10. Use quotation marks only to indicate direct quotations from sources. Do not use quotation marks for special emphasis.
11. Include spaces when typing ellipses, i.e., “. . .” not “...”
12. Use single quotation marks only for quotations within quotations. Double quotation marks are appropriate in most cases.
13. Block quotations: Set off from text all quotations of one hundred words or more or quotations of more than one paragraph. Indent the left margin of the block quotation an additional one-half inch.
14. Superscript note numbers in both the text and notes.
15. Use a single tab, not the auto-indent feature, at the beginning of each paragraph.
16. Do not use subheadings within text.
17. Double-check all quotations for accuracy, including capitalization, spelling, punctuation, etc.
18. Consult the “Alabama Review Style Sheet” for preferred style of capitalization, hyphenation, spelling, form, and usage.

Notes

19. Use endnotes, not footnotes.
20. Do not include a bibliography.
21. Except as shown in examples below, style of notes should conform to the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed., chapters 16 and 17.

22. Where feasible, avoid multiple note references within one paragraph by grouping citations for the paragraph in one note. Do not, however, consolidate all citations for a paragraph if it sacrifices clarity of reference.
23. Do not use "ibid." if more than one work is cited in the preceding note.
24. Provide only the place and date of publication (not publisher) when citing books. State names should be abbreviated according to the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed., 15.29. Do not use two-letter postal abbreviations for states (i.e., use "Ala." not "AL").
25. Insure that citations from archival or manuscript sources conform to the preferred citation form of the repository. Authors should contact the reference staff of the repository that holds the cited records or papers and confirm that the citation form is acceptable.
