Dear Friend:

We are pleased to share that the 4th annual Camp iCare, will take place from July 8-11, 2013. Through this experience, we seek to teach children basic “money smarts” and how to be philanthropically engaged.

The tuition for Camp iCare is $130 “Early Bird” and $150 after January 31, 2013 per camper registered. Please see the enclosed information which outlines the curriculum and activities of Camp iCare. In addition, you will find some camp basics and forms that must be signed. Camper registration is on a first come-first serve basis and will be accepted until June 15, 2013. There are a limited number of places for Camp iCare so we encourage you to register early.

In 2009, Camp iCare began through a joint venture between the College of Human Sciences’ Women’s Philanthropy Board and the Early Learning Center in the Department of Human Development and Family Studies. Today Camp iCare is a division of the Cary Center for the Advancement of Philanthropy and Nonprofit Studies, an academic center in the College of Human Sciences. Camp iCare’s unique focus of instilling financial know-how combined with philanthropic responsibility is unparalleled in a university-based, academic philanthropy center.

We are happy to answer any of your questions about Camp iCare and encourage you to take advantage of this unique opportunity. Please feel free to contact our office at 334-844-3524 for additional details. Again, reservations are accepted on a first come-first served basis and will be confirmed when your payment and registration forms are received.

We look forward to seeing you in July for the 4th annual Camp iCare.

Sincerely,

Sidney James Nakhjavan
