The Auburn University 2015 Introductory Income Tax Workshop will focus on Federal Tax Form preparation.

This tax workshop is designed for individuals beginning their career in tax preparation or those wanting a refresher course. This workshop is also beneficial for seasonal temporary tax staff. Each participant will receive a tax workshop booklet that will include instructional material, tax forms, and tax examples.

No prerequisites and no advance preparation required. For over forty years, Auburn University has provided quality continuing education at an affordable price to tax professionals, enrolled agents, certified public accountants, public accountants, and attorneys. Each workshop provides a total of 400 minutes of instruction.
