National Scholars
National Merit Finalists and National Achievement Finalists receive a National Scholars Presidential Scholarship that includes:
› $80,000 over four years ($20,000 per year)
› $1,000 technology stipend in the first fall semester
› $2,500 enrichment experience stipend available for one semester after the second year for study abroad or undergraduate research
› On-campus housing stipend for one year*
› $4,000-$8,000 stipend over four years ($1,000-$2,000 per year), depending on eligibility as determined by National Merit Scholarship Corporation and financial need as determined through completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

*Housing application required. Housing availability and assignments determined by the Department of University Housing.

A National Scholars Presidential Scholarship replaces an Academic Scholarship if previously awarded.

National Merit and Achievement semifinalists who have a minimum 3.5 high school GPA and meet the January 15 application for admission deadline receive an Academic Heritage Scholarship, replacing a Freshman Scholarship of lesser value if previously offered.

Non-resident National Merit and Achievement semifinalists who have a minimum 3.5 high school GPA and meet the January 15 application for admission deadline receive a Freshman Scholarship of lesser value if previously offered.

Important Notes
Minimum academic requirements for scholarship consideration and award amounts are for students planning to enroll Summer or Fall 2015 and are subject to change for enrollment in future terms.

For the purposes of awarding scholarships, the highest composite ACT or total SAT score from a single test date is used, and the writing score is not considered.
