 It is important to note that while Auburn University will not validate the information any supplier chooses to disclose, it is our responsibility to ensure all information required to make this form “complete” is provided. Should any information be missing, PBS will ask that the department submitting the disclosure statement request the missing information from the supplier. ***

3) A representative from the supplier and a notary MUST sign and date the disclosure statement prior to submission by the department. Along with the signature, a Notary Seal and a Notary Expiration date must be present on the form. Should the notary use a crimper for their seal, the department must ensure that the seal is visible when scanning and uploading into any Self-Service system.

(The easiest way to ensure the crimper stamp is visible is to lightly shade it with a pencil. This will allow for visibility once it is scanned.)

By signing below, I certify under oath and penalty of perjury that all statements on or attached to this form are true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I further understand that a civil penalty of ten percent (10%) of the amount of the transaction, not to exceed $10,000.00, is applied for knowingly providing incorrect or misleading information.
