JOB SUMMARY

The Executive Director serves as a strategic partner to the Vice President for Institutional Compliance & Security (VPICS), providing high-level leadership and analytical support across Institutional Compliance & Privacy, Equal Opportunity Compliance, Campus Safety & Security, Internal Audit, Threat Assessment, Emergency Management, and Public Information. The role advises on strategic decisions, leads major cross-functional projects, strengthens operational efficiency, and ensures effective coordination between the VPICS office and University leadership.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Directs and advises the VPICS on strategic and operational decisions, oversees high-impact projects, leads cross-functional teams, strengthens communication across University units, and identifies opportunities to streamline and improve organizational processes.
- Provides direct leadership and supervision to the Director of Threat Assessment, the Director of Intelligence & Compliance, and additional VPICS staff as assigned.
- Leads and conducts complex internal investigations involving allegations of compliance or ethical misconduct. Provides investigative expertise and support to partner offices including Equal Opportunity Compliance, Campus Safety & Security, Internal Audit, Human Resources, Research Integrity, Research Security, and Athletics.
- Represents the VPICS on cross-functional committees and working groups related to threat assessment, research security, foreign influence, and institutional leadership initiatives. Serves as the primary point-of-contact for state and federal security and law-enforcement agencies.
- Executes legal holds and manages e-discovery requests on behalf of the Office of General Counsel, ensuring accuracy, timeliness, and compliance with legal standards.
- Develops, updates, and maintains University policies related to compliance, security, and investigative practices. Designs and delivers training on investigations, compliance, and security topics for the University community.
