JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Director for Marketing, the Administrator for Advancement Business Operations is responsible for providing guidance to the entire division/college to create efficient and effective business processes. This position understands the breadth of the unit's work, how each department and function interrelates to one another, and identifies collaborative opportunities amongst staff within the department and across the division when applicable. This position also provides oversight to similar functions, particularly with high-volume communication project coordination.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides guidance to all division staff in the creation, organization, and documentation of business processes. Identifies and maintains standards and procedures to ensure business continuity and enhanced constituent experiences.
- Develops processes and associated tools to provide efficiencies, automated workflows, and technological solutions to a variety of division/college work.
- Establishes and coordinates a variety of projects to ensure a timely and efficient completion by working with a variety of subject matter experts.
- Provides guidance and direction of the division leadership, specifically to ensure effective and efficient communication, project coordination, and timelines. Maintains a macro-understanding of marketing and communication projects, goals, data, outcomes, and deadlines.
- Creates production schedules, workflows, summary and budget reports, sets time frames, and coordinates with other departments to ensure that project deadlines are met and within budget.
- Reports progress to leadership and communicates regularly with staff across the Division, University, and External Vendors.
- Maintains daily/monthly department quality and productivity standards to meet department goals.
- Responsible for the assistance and guidance in the development of policies, procedures, and applications to identify, recommend, create, document, and communicate procedures in a clear and concise manner.
- Informs supervisor of major issues and compliance risks. Performs data collection and analysis to provide meaningful service to clients.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
