JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Deputy AD/SWA, the Sr Assoc AD, Student-Athlete Support & Administration is responsible for the reporting of the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act Report and ensures compliance with Title IX. It serves as the primary contact for the NIL platform, facilitates NIL education, and addresses online infringement issues. Additionally, the position involves creating group licensing materials, coordinating educational sessions, and providing strategies related to new NIL legislation.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Oversees the reporting of the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act Report, which includes providing projections for athletic department and staff team roster sizes that are within Title IX compliance.
- Works in conjunction with the Title IX office to coordinate annual Title IX educational training for all student-athletes, coaches, and staff members in accordance with NCAA rules and regulations.
- Directs oversight of the NCAA Campus and Sexual Violence Attestation form which includes coordinating the signature of the Athletic Director and President.
- Serves as the primary contact point for the name, image, and likeness (NIL) platform (INFLCR), working with both Auburn Athletics staff and student-athletes to navigate the platform. Act as a liaison between student-athletes and external constituents. Review and process student-athlete third-party NIL opportunities for NCAA and institutional compliance. Facilitate student-athlete NIL education related to personal branding, entrepreneurship, and personal finance.
- In conjunction with the Auburn Trademark and Licensing office, creates and distributes group licensing educational materials for student-athletes. Coordinates educational sessions and ensures student-athlete rosters and registrations are up-to-date. Promotes the group licensing program and reports its results to athletics department staff. Addresses online infringement issues related to student-athlete NIL, including notifying student-athletes and third-party entities regarding the use of Auburn intellectual property.
- Provides strategies and research related to new NIL legislation, laws, and rules as they are introduced. Offer legislative updates and summary recommendations for the athletics department.
- Oversees sports camp programs, camps, and clinics, ensuring programs align with university policies, and assisting with scheduling of camp venues.
- Serves as an athletic sports administrator, responsible for the effective and consistent execution of competition and practice schedules, team, travel, roster management, scholarship, budget, operational budget decisions, and student aid experience factors for the varsity sports program.
- Complies with all applicable National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and Southeastern (SEC) regulations in the performance of job duties.
