JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family:	University Advancement
Job Function:	Donor Relations

JOB SUMMARY

The Director of Donor Services supports the strategic execution of premium seating operations and donor engagement initiatives for Tigers Unlimited. This role manages game-day logistics, donor hospitality, and seasonal programming across multiple sports venues, ensuring a high-quality experience for Auburn Athletics' most valued supporters. The Director supervises game-day staff, coordinates vendor services, and assists with donor events and stewardship efforts under the guidance of the Assistant Athletics Director (AD).

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Oversees day-to-day logistics for premium seating areas across football, basketball, equestrian, baseball, and gymnastics venues.
- Coordinates catering, setup, cleaning, and customer service in collaboration with vendors and facilities teams.
- Monitors food quality, service standards, and post-event feedback to ensure continuous improvement.
- Assists in planning and executing donor-focused events, including receptions, dedications, away game activations, and bowl game functions. Manages invitation lists, RSVPs, event setup, and on-site logistics.
- Travels as needed to support post-season donor events.
- Recruits, trains, and supervises seasonal staff, including Tigers Unlimited Ambassadors, Graduate Assistants, and volunteers.
- Provides game-day leadership and ensures staff are equipped with schedules, scripts, and service expectations. Supports payroll processing and staff performance evaluations.
- Assists with vendor communications, contract execution, and compliance with university and SEC policies.
- Tracks expenses and supports budget reviews for premium services and donor events. Assists with managing purchasing card usage and vendor payments through university systems.
- Contributes to donor stewardship efforts, including surveys, newsletters, and event follow-ups.
- Maintains accurate records and assists with donor data entry and reporting.
- Ensures all activities comply with NCAA, SEC, and Auburn University regulations.
- Collaborates with Athletics, Facilities, and Development teams to support capital projects and donor initiatives.
- Performs other duties as assigned.
