JOB FAMILY AND FUNCTION

Job Family: Athletics
Job Function: Student Support Services & Academic Support

JOB SUMMARY

Reporting to the Senior Associate Athletics Director (AD), Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS), the Associate AD, Student-Athlete Academic Services oversees the daily operations of football and men's basketball student-athletes and the Academic Counselors assigned to them. May also provide supervision to Academic Counselors working with other teams. Manages and understands the unique challenges and pressures facing the population of football and men's basketball student-athletes. Responsible for optimizing opportunities for academic success by serving as the SASS liaison with football and men's basketball coaching staff, identifying areas where academic services need improvement or additional resources, and mentoring the Academic Counselors working with the student-athletes. Responsible for the regular comprehensive review, proactive monitoring, accurate management, forecasting, and communication of continuing eligibility data and NCAA benchmarks for football and men's basketball students with the goal of optimizing student-athletes's academic success. Ensures compliance with all NCAA, SEC, and Auburn University academic policies.

RESPONSIBILITIES

• Collaborates as a key decision-making partner with the Senior Associate AD, SASS, and the Associate AD, SASS Operations to strategically enhance academic support services for student-athletes while ensuring compliance with NCAA, SEC, and Auburn University policies.

• Serves as the primary academic liaison for men's basketball and football. Manages the ongoing eligibility requirements for these two teams in accordance with NCAA and SEC regulations and Auburn University academic policies. Collaborates strategically with the Compliance team to assess the initial eligibility of prospective transfer students in football and men's basketball.

• Serves as an academic counselor with a caseload of football and men's basketball student-athletes. Maintains regular communication with coaches, administrators, on-campus stakeholders, the SASS Academic Counselors assigned to the teams, and the student-athletes. Conducts ongoing evaluations and assessments of academic services offered within SASS, including tutoring, the Strategist program, and objective-based study tables.

• Supervises a team of Academic Counselors, including those working with football, men's basketball, and Olympic teams, as well as overseeing graduate assistants assigned to the Academic Counselors.

• Manages key platforms and processes integral to the SASS mission, including the class checking system, on-campus orientations, and other relevant platforms and processes as they arise. Reviews and approves various internal SASS procedures, collaborating closely with academic counselors to ensure the smooth operation of academic support services for student-athletes.
RESPONSIBILITIES

- Partners with the Learning Specialist to enhance the Summer Bridge (and mini-bridge in the spring semester) Program’s effectiveness, providing valuable support and guidance to incoming students during each summer session. This collaboration involves developing and implementing strategies.

- to facilitate the successful transition of new students into the academic environment and includes annual evaluation and preparation for a new cohort of students each session.

- Complies with all applicable National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), Southeastern Conference (SEC), and Auburn University regulations in the performance of job duties.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

| Supervisory Responsibility | Full supervisory responsibility for other employees is a major responsibility and includes training, evaluating, and making or recommending pay, promotion or other employment decisions. |
