Job Summary

Responsible for the overall operations of the Graham Farm and Nature Center, a 491 acre property owned by Alabama Cooperative Extension System, serving as a site for programming focused towards youth development along with natural resource and animal science education located in Estillfork, Alabama. Manages the mission of the nature center as well as administrative oversight, personnel management, financial planning, and strategic planning.

Essential Functions

1. Oversees the overall operations of the Graham Farm and Nature Center, including administration, programming, food service, maintenance, building and grounds.
2. Oversees all policies and procedures as needed for the Center, in partnership with the state office at Auburn University and the Advisory Board.
3. Develops and implements the business plan for the center in collaboration with the advisory board and ACES administration. Manages and leads initiatives, development activities, and client relations in an effort to ensure continuous growth of membership, donors, outreach efforts, and educational efforts.
4. Secures resources and develops, implements, and evaluates strategies to market the center to both private and public users. Oversees public relations, fundraising, and the creation of long-term systems that will sustain the center. Communicates the center's purpose and vision to staff and stakeholders.
5. Oversees all human resources functions at the center including supervision of staff, recruitment and selection of staff, and other personnel actions. Establishes priorities to ensure that employees conduct business in accordance with policies and procedures.
6. Leads the development, review, and maintenance of the center's budget and monitors the expenditures of funds.
7. Develops marketing and communication plans to promote the vision, mission, goals, and achievements of the Alabama Cooperative Extension (ACES) System and Graham Farm and Nature Center.
8. Compiles a variety of information including fiscal, marketing, and maintenance reports for the center to share with the advisory board, stakeholders, and ACES administration.
9. Ensures quality educational programs are provided to the community along with outstanding recreational activities that will bring clients to the center into the state of Alabama. Ensures all youth programming adheres to the mission and policies of ACES and Auburn University.
10. May perform other duties as assigned.
