JOB SUMMARY

Under general supervision, the Extension Agent leads, plans, delivers, and evaluates educational programs that address community needs in the assigned subject matter. These programs aim to enhance knowledge, build skills, and promote positive change among participants.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Leads, organizes, and implements programs while providing experiential learning opportunities to enhance participants' knowledge, leadership skills, independence, and personal growth. Provides diverse programming and participates in cross-disciplinary initiatives to support meaningful change.
- Conducts and analyzes needs assessments to identify and prioritize program needs. Provides input for new programs using research-based resources and collaborates regularly to coordinate efforts and establish priorities.
- Analyzes program-specific data, prepares evaluation summaries and success stories, and creates and distributes timely reports on program outcomes to stakeholders and partners.
- Establishes and maintains relationships with stakeholders, participates in stakeholder organization programming, and serves as the Alabama Cooperative Extension System's (ACES) subject-matter representative. Develops positive working relationships with colleagues and clients in assigned area to build networks, coalitions, and/or community capacity.
- Communicates effectively to develop partnerships that enhance program delivery and evaluation. Acts as a positive role model for the organization and contributes to ACES's mission and goals.
- Budgets and manages fiscal resources according to ACES policies, ensuring responsible stewardship. Identifies, manages, and secures extramural funding (grants, contracts, donations, sponsorships, programming fees, etc.) to support and expand programming. May also assist with securing resources for multi-county, state, and national level events.
- Identifies innovative ways to engage targeted underserved and underrepresented audiences. Ensures compliance with related civil rights and affirmative action policies.
- Establishes media contacts and actively uses various media outlets to promote and market programs in line with Auburn University and ACES branding guidelines.
- Builds relationships with volunteers and partners. Provides leadership and coordination for volunteer development, including recruitment, orientation, and specialized training to strengthen program and volunteer capacity.
- Provides expertise and leadership to the internal team and/or external stakeholders, ensuring that program policies, decisions, and directions align with ACES and Auburn University guidelines.
- Implements and enforces all Auburn University Risk Management requirements and policies designed to help keep program participants, especially youth, safe.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- May develop the Priority Program Team (PPT) plan-of-work and create individual plans with other Extension Agents. May evaluate plan-of-work objectives and outcomes to ensure positive impact in assigned area.
