Job Title:	Asst Dir, AA/EEO	Job Family:	No Family
Job Code:	EB42	Grade 38:	$78,900 - $131,600
FLSA status:	Exempt

Job Summary

Reporting to the AA/EEO Director, serves as an independent gatekeeper and resource for Complainants and Respondent in the Title IX investigative process by issuing notices in the process, conducting meetings with the parties to answer questions, gathering additional information, and ensuring compliance with AU policy and federal regulations. Responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the office and managing employees.

Essential Functions

1. Conducts a fair and impartial hearing between the parties, where one is requested, and manages the process without bias, ensuring that advisors to the parties do not openly participate in the hearing. Taking into account information gathered at the hearing as well as from the Preliminary Investigative Report, drafts a Notice of Outcome including findings, rationale, and sanctions, if applicable. Meets privately with each party to review the Notice of Outcome and explain next steps in the process. Forwards the Notice of Outcome to the Title IX Coordinator who issues the Final Notice of Outcome.
2. Receives the Preliminary Investigative Report prepared by the Investigators and determines if additional interviews and/or reporting are required for clarity and accuracy. Receives a Recommendation of Responsibility or Non-Responsibility for policy violation from Investigators and meets with each of the involved parties prior to making a determination. Determines whether the Respondent is responsible for a policy violation.
3. Provides daily oversight for the management of the office. Prepares performance evaluations for professional and administrative employees. Assists the Title IX Coordinator with the monitoring of full compliance with procedural requirements, record-keeping, and timeframes outlined in applicable departmental policies and provides timely updates to the University EEO Director and Title IX Coordinator.
4. Notifies parties to a Title IX complaint that a complaint is commencing and includes in the written notice all specific details of the complaint and arranges for initial meetings with each party. Reads aloud to each party and reviews questions regarding the complaint and the process.
5. Creates and delivers training, prevention, and education programs to students, staff, and faculty regarding sexual misconduct and sexual harassment.
6. Performs other duties as assigned by the AA/EEO Director.

Supervisory Responsibility

Full supervisory responsibility for other employees is a major responsibility and includes training, evaluating, and making or recommending pay, promotion or other employment decisions.

The above essential functions are representative of major duties of positions in this job classification. Specific duties and responsibilities may vary based upon departmental needs. Other duties may be assigned similar to the above consistent with the knowledge, skills and abilities required for the job. Not all of the duties may be assigned to a position.
