JOB SUMMARY

Coordinates various Human Resources Development (HRD) programs and activities including performance development, leadership development, education benefits, learning management, training logistics, and operational support.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provides administrative and operational support for Human Resources Development (HRD). Maintains and organizes files and information, reports on various projects, coordinates the scheduling of meetings, and responds in a timely manner to employee and departmental requests.
- Assists in scheduling customized and tailored courses for campus partners. Supports HRD functions by coordinating with the program administrator to identify training needs for faculty and staff. Loads courses, registers attendees, disseminates reports and course evaluations, and generates and processes course rosters.
- Plans and coordinates meetings and events in HRD spaces. Maintains and prepares training rooms. Coordinates and maintains calendars in Outlook to include resolving scheduling conflicts. Coordinates Training Room usage, including bookings and reservations with University Human Resources (UHR) and visitors. Prepares training rooms for HRD events. Greets reservations holders and instructors and organizes furniture as needed. Opens and closes the divider wall, learns podium technology, and promptly addresses issues with the appropriate department. Organizes catering as required for special events. Prints course materials and ensures proper functioning of AV equipment.
- Addresses technical issues with Business Administration support staff. Collaborates with instructors and subject matter experts to facilitate the learning and development training schedule. Tracks project progression on behalf of HRD.
- Calculates, tracks, and reports departmental metrics for learner satisfaction.
- Responds to inquiries and advises employees through the application process for the Employee Education Benefit (EEB) and Dependent Education Benefit (DEB). Escalates issues and concerns to the Program Administrator, HRD. Addresses and resolves technical issues with the appropriate agency. Serves as the primary approver for EEB and DEB requests.
- Completes other duties as assigned.
