JOB SUMMARY

The Contract Administration Specialist I reports directly to the Assistant Director of Contracts Administration and plays a crucial role in the review, creation, and management of contracts. This position focuses on the procurement of goods and services in compliance with Alabama's Title 41 (State of Alabama Competitive Bid Law), as well as oversees bidding, construction, and renovation projects under Alabama's Title 39 (State of Alabama Public Works Bid Law). Additionally, this role provides essential administrative and analytical support to the Contract Administration team.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assists in the creation, processing, review, and execution of consultant agreements, amendments, construction contracts, and change orders. Ensures all activities comply with applicable laws and policies.
- Supports the facilitation of Public Bid Openings by ensuring all required documents are present and complete, in accordance with the Code of Alabama and university policies and procedures.
- Interprets and communicates applicable state and federal laws, regulations, university policies, and administrative opinions related to University contracts to both internal and external stakeholders.
- Supports the Assistant Director of Contract Administration by serving as a point of contact for guidance on compliance with Alabama's Title 39 and other relevant laws and policies.
- Assists in developing and delivering training programs on processes and procedures related to contracting requirements for campus constituents.
- Generates and processes requisitions and purchase orders using the TigerBuy system.
- May support the Assistant Director of Contract Administration by reviewing and approving requisitions within the TigerBuy system.
- Performs a variety of administrative duties, including effective communication via email, electronic signature, phone, or mail with internal entities, contractors, and consultants to obtain required contract documents. Coordinates and schedules staff, individual, and other requested meetings for Contract Administration, and handles additional administrative tasks as needed.
- Assists in reviewing and ensuring sufficient budgets are available to process and execute required contracts and agreements.
- May perform other related duties as assigned.
