JOB SUMMARY

Directs and coordinates all aspects of contract management by providing professional leadership, strategic planning, and supervision of the business activities and operations of Business & Finance and Procurement and Business Services (PBS).

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serves as the senior contracting director for the University and the Alabama Cooperative Extension System (ACES) and manages the contracting staff that drafts, reviews, and executes university contracts. Ensures compliance with applicable law and policy. Coordinates agreement terms with campus stakeholders and negotiates with external parties. Monitors and tracks the status of existing university agreements.
- Manages highly complex contractual relationships with competing interests and ensures university business partners operate within the confines of conveyed rights and responsibilities.
- Serves as liaison and interfaces with campus constituents to provide guidance on contract issues and present training (including HRD Courses) related to university contracting.
- Manages the Campus Sponsorship program to include identifying areas of opportunity among campus corporate contracts and relationships, assembles stakeholders to monetize inventory, and creates and obtains additional service value from existing and potential corporate partners.
- Interfaces with and recruits stakeholders to gain participation and coordinates efforts. Manages the centralized administrative functions of existing campus sponsorship programs, including revenue tracking and personnel management for a contract officer.
- Manages multimillion dollar contracts, campus sponsorships, and strategic planning agreements for the University.
- Manages agreements between other companies and the University and negotiates the best deal for the University, to bring in new or improved revenue streams.
- Provides consultation and oversees the development and implementation of a comprehensive Contract Repository. Responsibilities include overseeing the process, evaluating system options, and training campus on the use of the system.

The responsibilities listed above show the typical duties for jobs in this classification. Actual tasks may differ depending on the department's needs. Other similar duties may be assigned with discretion of the supervisor. Not every duty will apply to every position, and the amount of time spent on each task can change based on department needs.
